

Name : Zeina Samir Hashem

The scientific title: assistant teacher

Academic achievement: Master of Law College of Maysan University

Master's thesis title: The administration's commitment to the prevention of environmental damage in Iraq, a comparative study the activities :

- Participation in four joint research within scientific conferences inside and outside Iraq.
- Participation in an international collective book for a group of researchers entitled (Legal business of electronic management)
- She holds many certificates of participation in seminars and training courses in the field of law and others.
- A lecture in the development and empowerment course for graduates, which was held under the auspices of the Lebanese International Academy for Training and Development, with a group of law professors and practicing lawyers in Maysan, according to a training curriculum for the year 2021.
- Supervision of graduation research for fourth-year students
- Teaching subjects : administrative judiciary / political systems.